

FALL MAY GET CABINET PLACE

New Mexico Senator, Now With President-Elect, Mentioned For Honor.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES, International News Service.

While President-elect Harding is vacationing in the Florida sunshine, he is by no means giving all his attention to his golf clubs and the fish in Indian river, according to information drifting northward into Senatorial circles today. In between tea-shots and fish the President-elect is giving serious consideration to plugging up the few remaining Cabinet holes.

leagues in the Senate if Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico returned to Washington a Cabinet pick.

The New Mexico Senator is now sojourning on the Indian river houseboat, where he went at the earnest solicitation of the President.

It is generally felt by Senator Harding and a number of prominent Republicans in the Senate that there should be one sitting Senator chosen for a Cabinet post. They believe it would do much toward promoting a cordial relationship between the White House and the Capitol to "have the Senate represented."

One of the things, it has been pointed out, that made the Wilson administration experience sliding sledging with the Capitol at times was the fact that there was very little personal relationship between Mr. Wilson and his advisers and the Senators on the Hill. It is the desire of the Republicans to prevent any such recurrence by having some representation at the other end of the Avenue.

CALLS FOR WESTERN MAN.
Senator Harding is known to be having difficulty in choosing a man for the job as Secretary of the Interior. Logically the post calls for a Western man, familiar with the conditions and needs of the West, and it is in connection with this portfolio that Senator Fall is reported to have been summoned to join the houseboat party.

Fall has spent most of his life in the West; he knows intimately the natural needs of the country, and aside from all this he is an acknowledged authority on Mexico. In the Cabinet he would be in an excellent position to give the President much valuable advice on the formation of a new Mexican policy.

Fall's appointment would kill another of Harding's worries. The tentative Cabinet slated so far reported have failed to include a far Western representative, and this fact has been the cause of some dissatisfaction on the part of far westerners who feel they are being slighted. Fall is a far westerner.

FALL IS POPULAR.
Washington gossip has connected Fall's name with the State and Department of Justice portfolios also, but it is not believed he will be found in either of these after March 4.

Republican Senators generally would greet the New Mexican's appointment with well nigh unanimous approval. They would feel that they had some direct representation in the executive branch of the Government to whom, by reason of long years of working in the same harness, they could go and talk freely.

The Republican Senators feel that this would materially lessen the bumps of friction which frequently arise between the executive and legislative ends of Pennsylvania avenue.

APPROVE 'AT HOME' TESTS FOR ALIENS

European Officials O. K. Plan to Examine Emigrants to U. S. Before Sailing.

European nations "view with approval" plans for the preliminary examination of immigrants to the United States in their native lands, Anthony Caminetti, Commissioner of Immigration, today told the Senate Immigration Committee considering immigration exclusion legislation.

Senator Colt, Republican, Rhode Island, chairman of the committee, announced hearings on the bill would be concluded with the testimony of Caminetti.

Caminetti told the committee his visit to Europe to study the immigration situation received the hearty co-operation of the officials over there. "Establishment of a system to examine prospective immigrants in their native lands received almost universal support abroad," Caminetti said.

APPEALS FOR AID.
An organization in Paris receives appeals for assistance from about 1,500 persons each day, all of whom are natives of other countries, the commissioner added. "Large numbers of these are Jewish," Caminetti said. "Many do not have exact information concerning the addresses of their relatives in America."

EDGE MAKES QUERY.
Senator Edge, Republican, of New Jersey, asked Caminetti if he could not give a definite recommendation as to the number and class of immigrants which may come to the United States in the immediate future.

Senator Colt concluded the hearing, before the committee could reply, until tomorrow morning.

George McK. McClellan, of Washington, told the committee a board should be created to control immigration.

Sugar Price Drops.
NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Price of refined sugar west of the Mississippi, including Texas, was reduced to 7.51 cents today, according to an announcement of the American Sugar Refining Company made public here.

MRS. ETHEL STEVENS
GEORGE, of Oak Park, Ill., claims in her successful suit for divorce that she weighed 115 pounds and was in excellent health when she married William D. George, a broker, in April 7, 1920, and that she weighed 89 pounds and was more or less a physical wreck by September 10, when she left him.

67 U. S. INCOMES AT MILLION MARK

Only One Listed as Having $5,000,000, or More Yearly, in Tax Audit.

Among 67 persons in the United States, rated as having incomes of $1,000,000 and upward, only one is listed by the Government as having an income of $5,000,000 and over, according to revised audit of 1918 tax returns, announced today by the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Who the millionaires and multimillionaires are is not disclosed by the bureau on the ground that tax returns are confidential, and the law requires that the details such returns contain shall not be divulged.

The bureau, it is said, can make no accurate compilation of the total number of American millionaires who paid income tax in 1918. Officials explained that many in that class showed varying incomes. Some reputed millionaires reported net incomes, for example, as low as sums ranging from $200,000 to $500,000. Altogether there were 243 officially listed as in the class having incomes of from $500,000 upward to $5,000,000 and more.

The total amount of net income reported by the 4,425,114, who filed personal returns was $15,924,639,355, and Government collected in taxes both normal and surtaxes $1,127,721,825. The average tax per individual was $254.85. The 1918 returns showed an increase in number of 962,224 over the filings in 1917, and an increase of $436,228,881 in the tax collected.

Corporations income tax returns numbered 317,579, with a total tax of $3,158,764,422. Of this amount war profits and excess profits taxes amounted to $2,595,565,939.

CREW OF ICE BOUND SEAPLANE RESCUED

Seven Men Had Been Gripped in Pack at Keyport, N. J. Since Monday.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Chilled by a gale and weak from hunger, seven of the crew of the flying boat Ponce de Leon, which has been gripped in an ice pack at Keyport, N. J., since Monday afternoon, were rescued yesterday after motorboats had made several ineffectual attempts to get them to the shore, 500 yards away.

The flying boat is still fast, but it is expected will be free today. At 9 o'clock Monday morning she rose for a test flight with C. J. Zimmerman as pilot, F. Sanborn, assistant pilot and five mechanics. At noon they descended to make adjustments. The wind blew chunks of ice in huge quantities into the area around the plane and between the craft and shore. When the crew attempted to make shore they found the flying boat was hemmed in. A motor craft was transferred by truck seven miles down the shore and from that point approached the stricken plane from the water and at 3 o'clock in the morning effected their rescue.

RAID ON LIQUOR VAULT OF WEALTHY MAN FAILS

One Thief Caught, Two Believed Shot in Attack.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Liquor thieves have long had eyes upon the splendid stock in the vaults of Col. Francis T. A. Junkin, and early yesterday a raid was attempted. The raiders, however, were met by a storm of bullets and retired in disorder.

It is believed two of them were wounded by detectives. A third man was captured. He gives the name of Frank Weber, alias Brown, of St. Louis. The police say he is a former convict.

In his possession was found a complete set of burglar tools and a notebook in which were listed names and addresses of more than 100 prominent Chicagoans.

At about the same hour liquor worth $25,000 and cigars and cigarettes valued at $10,000 were confiscated by detectives, who had discovered the hiding place of a gang of freight car robbers and raided it. Five men were captured in this raid, all of whom are said to be booze runners.

Bill Hohenzollern is saying nothing and saving wood. But he'd be yelling his head off at the size of your 1920 income tax if he were doing the collecting.

JANE, IN FRANCE, HAS HIS LOVE, SAYS WIFE

Produces Fervid Letters When Major Sues Her for Cash Deposit Account.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Fervid love letters from "Jane," who is described as a French mademoiselle, to Major Julian C. Smith were introduced in court by Mrs. Elizabeth C. Smith in Long Island City yesterday. The letters, which Mrs. Smith says she found in her husband's desk, were made part of a reply to an action commenced by Major Smith for an accounting from his wife.

GAVE WIFE HIS MONEY.
Before Major Smith went to France the Smiths, with their three children, lived at Douglaston, L. I.

Major Smith asserts that he turned over his bank account of $2,248 to his wife when he went to France. Mrs. Smith declares that during his absence it cost her $15,000 to live. During that time the Major gave her only $9,000, she says.

One letter was dated February 21, 1919, Angers, France. It read:

"My Dear One: Yesterday morning I received your sweet missive and that which it contained. I am overcome by so much bounty and I would be happy if I could thank you in person, but alas—you are ready to leave for America without my being able to tell you good-by. I am, desolate and put my whole heart in this letter as a souvenir of the good times that passed with you, and which I shall never forget.

"You will write to me in English which will be very agreeable to me and I will write you long pages in French. I will give you all the news of Angers, of all your friends—men and women."

WANTS TO EMBRACE HIM.

"Jane" thanked "Dearest Julian" for the box of chocolates and regretted not being able to "embrace you again before your departure." She concluded:

"I will send my letters to your office because at your home I fear that they would go to another recipient other than you. I close in thanking you most sincerely for all your bounties to me and in assuring you of unalterable attachment."

"Oh, you wicked one, do you say all those things to me?"

"You might well know, my dear one, that after such good days passed together it would be difficult to forget you. You fear, my dearest, that with the affection I have for you I would refuse to marry. No young man has pleased me."

"I know you are a strong man. You drink when you are with me, but that is not often. Nor is it bad to drink a little cognac when you have drunk a little cognac. You are gay. Have you ever drank creme de menthe? It gives gaiety. I close, for I shall end by talking nonsense."

"I await your dear visit for it shall be the last. We will pass an agreeable afternoon together soon, I hope."

JANE.

NEW PARIS STOCKINGS CALLED EYE OPENERS

They're Radiant and Trimmed With Varied Decorations.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—"Radiant" stockings, announced from Paris, have not yet startled promenaders in London, though footwear fashions of the moment in England could by no means be called conservative in conception and design.

One of the mildest designs is the spider and fly design, the web, in delicate silk tracery, is designed to come just above the strap of an ankle-band shoe. Birds wreaths of flowers and fruit, animals and swastika signs, which, appearing on lady's veil, used to have the effect of decorating the tip of her nose, have been transferred to the gossamer stockings.

A slim golden or silver anklet, worked in the silk of the stocking, is one idea which gives an Eastern effect to an otherwise Western toilet.

"Tiny sprigs of old-fashioned flowers worked in the correct colors on the front of a pair of stockings were seen in wear in Bond street."

FOUR STOVE CO. OFFICIALS ACCUSED OF TAX TRAUDS

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26.—Federal warrants charging conspiracy to defraud the United States Government of revenues due under the income tax were issued by United States Commissioner Thomas Gregory yesterday against W. Horace Schmidlapp, Rife Pope, Herman F. Cellarius and Fred Watson, all of Cincinnati and connected with the Monitor Stove and Range Company, of this city.

The warrants followed the seizure yesterday by Federal agents of the books of the Monitor company, and, it was stated, were sworn to after officials here conferred with internal revenue and Department of Justice officials in Washington.

AUTOIST GETS 60 DAYS; HIS CAR KILLED WOMAN

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 26.—Pleading guilty to involuntary manslaughter, Chester Fleck, prominent young business man, was sentenced by Judge Woodrum in corporation court to pay a fine of $250 and serve sixty days in jail.

Fleck was indicted recently in connection with the death of Mrs. D. L. Davis, who was run down and killed December 27, last, by an automobile driven by Fleck.

The Final "Clean-Up"
800 Prs. "Short Lines" Women's Dress Boots Tomorrow, 7th St. Store $2.95

This is where we say "Good-bye" to nearly all "short lines" of Fall and Winter Novelty Boots that were originally $8.50 to $12.50. Recently they have been in $7.45, $6.85 and $4.95 sales. Last week we sold half of what was left at $3.69. And beginning tomorrow morning at 8 a. m., we have gathered all that remain from all our stores—including the Baltimore store—for a final clearaway.

Remember, there isn't a single pair that isn't fresh, new and desirable in style, quality—N EVERYTHING. They are in all leathers, colors and combinations. And the only reason we are willing to let them go at such a ridiculously low price is because sizes are badly broken.

Women who wear the smaller sizes, particularly, will have a real picnic tomorrow.
